Game is fun, fast paced, and challenging. Only con is the devs had to abandon the game due to low profit and the need to find a work. Tho at this price tag / quality I would def recommend it to anyone, i've met like 2 bugs that were more funny than gamebreaking.. Would be a decent game of the genre if it had a decent vocabulary. It does not recognize many basic english words.. Been looking for a game of this kind for years. It has a bit of a 'clunky' feel to it and things aren't always as straight forward as they could be. All in all a good game but vastly over priced in my opinion.. Game is thy best Football Mogul Simulator type game I have ever played and I think I have played them all. A+++ on a job wel done. Please sir may I have another ?. So, the game is a heck of a lot of fun. I could see myself playing it with my friends for hours. The only problem I have with it is that I had to completely exit the game after each race. The option to leave did not work. So, I do recommend it, but I hope that is fixed soon.. Great game, but then I have enjoyed all of Siderwebs games.. Excelent game, A very good strategy experience in turn-based game. It let me travel to a time where I was passionate for gaming day and night. Nice remembering.. Game is bugged to me: finished the first level on second galaxy and the game crashes on loading, leaving the second level locked. No further prograss possible.

What i have seen so far: looks very nice and promising from the outside but is this very frustrating "try again, and again, and again..." type of game on the inside.. Haven't touched it for months and now I can't even run it on windows 10 without any reasons why...

Save your time and money and get PaintTool SAI instead.

Shame ... it had so much potential.

RIP 30 bucks.. for 15$ it gets boring after like the first lvl. all u do is run around as a zombie killing/eating people till u get a nice size horde... then u attack an objective and hope u can overrun them. it has good potential but its not being all it could be. i know its only in beta but a 10$ price tag would have made me feel alot better. not really worth the money in its current state. keep in mind its still in beta tho.

What a hidden gem. This game has some absolutely astonishing music, charming graphics and writing, interesting characters and designs, and although it tends to be pretty standard early on in terms of mechanics, it has a lot of depth in tactical choice. This would have been a frickin' hit on the SNES years back. Definitely worth your money.. You dont get alot but i did like the new outdoor BBQ set! and the outdoor TV is awsome. I think $20 is alittle high for it but it is what it is.. It's just a mobile game, with keyboard controls. And bad ones at that.. This game should be in pre alpha it is not an online game and as far as i can tell there is only a starter area.. Really good but you may have to run through the tutorial first.. Overall the game is enjoyable.

However, you cannot modify the controls

also the controls are not responding well at certain instances of the game

The controls are the major problem this game has. This game is sadly littered with bugs.

Whilst the concept is factastic, the overall gameplay and execution is really poor.

The developers don't seem to be adding to the game in the near future and there are no bug fixes.. This is a great aircraft to pratice your skills with before you use bigger faster jet-fighters(F-16). The Northrop T-38 Talon trainer aircraft, which were directly based on the F-5's, is the aircraft the United States Air Force train there pilots with. It doesn't come with much toggle switches but it is fun to fly and personally it is one of my favorites.. This is not Cry of Fear but i like it. Actually I don't understand why there is so much toxic comments.

The game is simple, creepy and the most important it's free. I see here a great potential. Hope the devs will continue updating the game. And by the way the game have a great soundtrack!. It's a fun city-building game, but not very challenging. A good, chill game.
